Matthew 13:3-9

A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil.

Rooted

Matthew 13:3-9

It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. Other seed fell among the thorns, which grew up and choked the plants. Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop — a hundred, sixty, or thirty times what was sown. He who has ears, let him hear.

Rooted

Matthew 13:18-23

Listen then to what the parable of the sower means: When anyone hears the message about the Kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart.

Rooted

Matthew 13:18-23

This is the seed sown along the path.
The one who received the seed that fell on rocky places is the one who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. But since he has no root,

he lasts only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, he quickly falls away. The one who received the seed that fell among the thorns is the one who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke it, making it unfruitful. But the one who received the seed that fell on good soil is the one who hears the word and understands it.

Matthew 13:18-23

He produces a crop yielding a hundred,
sixty, or thirty times what was sown.
