

The Holy Spirit in History

2Tim 3:16 All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness.

“That would depend on what the Bible claimed. If the Bible claimed absolute authority and inerrancy but was only right a majority of the time, I wouldn’t trust that kind of Bible.” Jack Deere

In the Scripture, false prophets are those who contradict the teaching and predictions of true prophets and attempt to lead people away from God and His Word.

George Wishart (1513 – 1546)

He was not only singularly learned as well in godly knowledge as in all honest humane science, but also he was so clearly illuminated with the spirit of prophecy, that he saw not only things pertaining to himself, but also such things as some towns and the whole realm afterward felt, which he forespake, not in secret, but in the audience of many...

“God is my witness, I never desired your trouble, but your comfort;...but I am sure, to reject the word of God and drive away his messengers, is not the way to save you from trouble, but to bring you into it...When I am gone...if it be well with you for a long while, I am not led by the Spirit of truth; but if unexpected trouble comes upon you, remember this is the cause, and turn to God by repentance, for he is merciful.” George Wishart

Psalm 107:20, “He sent forth his word and healed them; he rescued them from the grave.”

“He who, from yonder place, looks upon me with such pride, shall,
within a few days, lie in the same (referring to the castle), as ignominiously as he is now seen proudly to rest himself.”

George Wishart

John Welsh (1570 – 1622)

Robert Bruce (1554 – 1631)

Alexander Peden (1626 – 1686)

“You see me summoned to appear, in a few minutes, before the court of heaven, as a witness in our Redeemer’s cause, against the Ruler of Scotland. Are you willing that I should part from you?”

John Brown

“Blessed be thou, O Holy Spirit, that speaketh more comfort to my heart than the voice of my oppressors can speak terror to ears!” John Brown

Graham was at Priesthill this morning, and has murdered John Brown. His corpse is lying at the end of his house, and his poor wife sitting weeping by his corpse, and not a soul to speak comfortably to her. This morning, after the sun-rising, I saw a strange apparition in the firmament, the appearance of a very bright, clear, shining star fall from heaven to earth. And indeed there is a clear, shining light fallen this day, the greatest Christian that I ever conversed with.”
