

The Day The World Forever Changed

The birth of Jesus was THE turning point in human history. It was THE pivotal event that signaled something was different, that a change was coming. What was that change and why was it needed?

The Day The Lord Spoke Again Luke 1.5-17

There are times in life when God seems silent. But,, is He?

Sometimes God Seems Silent

“Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of the Lord. “He will restore the hearts of the fathers to their children and the hearts of the children to their fathers, so that I will not come and smite the land with a curse.” Malachi 4.5-6

It’s hard to trust a silent God

Sometimes God Speaks

13 But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your petition has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will give him the name John.

14 You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth.

15 For he will be great in the sight of the Lord; and he will drink no wine or liquor, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit while yet in his mother’s womb.

16 And he will turn many of the sons of Israel back to the Lord their God.

17 It is he who will go as a forerunner before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers back to the children, and the disobedient to the attitude of the righteous, so as to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.”

God to Zacharias: the coming of your son points to the coming of My Son

And My Son will change everything.

God Is Always Speaking

There are times when God seems silent in our lives But He is not. He is always speaking. And He always loves us.

God always speaks in and through Jesus

The birth of Jesus is the story of God loving us even in our rebellion. It is the story of God speaking to us once and for all. It is the story of God doing what only He could and can do.

And God always gave us Jesus. That's what God does when He speaks.
