

'Your Super Power' – Part 2

*There is more to your circumstances than meets the eye.
Your current circumstances are a chapter of your life story, not the full story.*

Ice-Breakers:

- Were your parents reactors or responders? How did their pattern work out for them? For you?

Questions:

1. Is it difficult to imagine the events of your life as part of a bigger story? Why or why not?
2. Read Genesis 50:18–20.
  - What stands out to you in this passage?
  - Given all that Joseph had been through, how could he respond like that?
  - Can you think of a time where others intended you harm, but God intended it for good? If so, share that with the group (including what you learned from the experience).
3. Read Romans 8:28.
  - With Joseph's story as a backdrop, what stands out to you in this verse?
  - What are the implications of Paul's words to all Christians who are navigating adversity?
4. Where are you reacting as expected rather than responding in a faith-filled way that opens the door for an unexpected outcome?

Application:

- This week, change your mind! You have the super-power to respond rather than react. Use it. You will be better for it, and the people around you will be, too.
