

The Necessity of the Incarnation

1/1/23 (Hebrews 2:14-18)

That Jesus became _____ and yet _____ _____ is _____ to our _____.

I. Becoming Man Allows _____ to _____ - v.17-18

“In every respect” in v.17 excludes the _____ all people after _____ are _____ with. Jesus’ avoidance of _____ is tied to His unique and miraculous _____ within _____ by the _____. (Matthew 1:20; Luke 1:35)

v.17 - Jesus’ temptation by Satan in the wilderness proved:

- Jesus was _____ and yet _____
- _____ is not in itself _____

Hebrews 4:14-16 - Jesus was _____ in _____
_____ we are, except _____. MacArthur writes “Most of us never know the full degree of _____ temptation, simply because we usually _____ long _____ that degree is _____.”

Jesus became Human in part to _____ every type of temptation so He can _____ with and _____ us.

II. Becoming Man Allowed _____ to _____ - v.14-15; 17

1) To _____ the _____ - v.14b

Jesus became Human _____ because as _____
He could _____, but as a _____ He could use _____ to ultimately _____.

2) As a _____ for _____ - v.17b

v.17 - Kruger writes “‘_____’ is a specific word which means that Jesus’ death _____ God’s _____ against _____ - it _____ God.”

God’s _____ is a major aspect of _____
and _____. (Romans 1:18; 2:5; II Thes. 1:8-9)

v.17 - “_____ is an action that. . . denotes the
_____, putting away or rubbing _____ of
_____ so that it no longer constitutes a _____
to _____ between man and God.
Propitiation, however, in the Bible, denotes all that _____ means, AND the _____ of the _____ of God.” - Packer

The propitiation Jesus provided required both His _____
and His _____.

3) To _____ from _____ - v.15

v.15 - For a Christian, _____ is just a _____
that _____ us to _____.

The Necessity of the Incarnation

1/1/23 (Hebrews 2:14-18)

That Jesus became _____ and yet _____
_____ is _____ to our _____.

I. Becoming Man Allows _____ to _____ - v.17-18

“In every respect” in v.17 excludes the _____
all people after _____ are _____ with. Jesus’
avoidance of _____ is tied to His unique
and miraculous _____ within _____ by
the _____. (Matthew 1:20; Luke 1:35)

v.17 - Jesus’ temptation by Satan in the wilderness proved:

- Jesus was _____ and yet _____
- _____ is not in itself _____

Hebrews 4:14-16 - Jesus was _____ in _____
_____ we are, except _____. MacArthur writes “Most of us never know the full degree of _____ temptation, simply because we usually _____
long _____ that degree is _____.”

Jesus became Human in part to _____ every type of temptation so He can _____ with and _____ us.

II. Becoming Man Allowed _____ to _____ - v.14-15; 17

1) To _____ the _____ - v.14b

Jesus became Human _____ because as _____
He could _____, but as a _____ He could
use _____ to ultimately _____.

2) As a _____ for _____ - v.17b

v.17 - Kruger writes “‘_____’ is a specific
word which means that Jesus’ death _____ God’s _____ against _____ - it _____ God.”

God’s _____ is a major aspect of _____
and _____. (Romans 1:18; 2:5; II Thes. 1:8-9)

v.17 - “_____ is an action that. . . denotes the
_____, putting away or rubbing _____ of
_____ so that it no longer constitutes a _____
to _____ between man and God.
Propitiation, however, in the Bible, denotes all that _____ means, AND the _____ of
the _____ of God.” - Packer

The propitiation Jesus provided required both His _____
and His _____.

3) To _____ from _____ - v.15

v.15 - For a Christian, _____ is just a _____
that _____ us to _____.