

1 Peter: Being A Believer In A Non-Believing Culture

Being a Believer in a Non-Believing Culture requires a commitment to Jesus that surpasses any commitment of any person who is not a follower of Christ.

Called To Holiness

1 Peter 1:13-16

¹³ Therefore, prepare your minds for action, keep sober in spirit, fix your hope completely on the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

¹⁴ As obedient children, do not be conformed to the former lusts which were yours in your ignorance,

¹⁵ but like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in all your behavior;

¹⁶ because it is written, “You shall be holy, for I am holy.”

In a culture that is hostile to followers of Christ, do this, follow how Jesus calls you to live.

Hope is a uniquely Christian characteristic missing in other faiths or philosophies.

In the middle of a hostile culture is it's demand to abandon following Jesus.

The world doesn't care if you are a Christian. Just don't be a follower of Christ.

A hostile culture removes a Christian's self-righteousness

Holiness is living a life that conforms to the call of Jesus upon our life
