

The Night Before: John 13

He Loved His Guys

John 13:1-4

1 Now before the Feast of the Passover, Jesus knowing that His hour had come that He would depart out of this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.

2 During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray Him,

3 Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come forth from God and was going back to God,

4 got up from supper, and laid aside His garments; and taking a towel, He girded Himself.

To fully and completely experience the love of Jesus you need to be one of his own.

One Last Moment

Evil and rebellion, in general, comes from the Evil One, but our actions are our own.

When we ask the question, “What does love look like?” we begin here. Jesus loving his own completely, even Judas.

Making That Moment Our Own

Who experiences the love of Jesus?

Who experiences the love of Jesus to the fullest?

Every person rebels against God and God holds every person accountable for rebelling.

For Jesus to love you to the end, you need to be one of his own.
