— Sermon Passage —

MICAH 5:1-6 (NIV - NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION)

5:1 [a] Marshal your troops now, city of troops, for a siege is laid against us.

They will strike Israel's ruler
on the cheek with a rod.

2 "But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans[b] of Judah,
out of you will come for me
one who will be ruler over Israel, whose origins are from of old,
from ancient times."

3 Therefore Israel will be abandoned until the time when she who is in labor bears a son, and the rest of his brothers return to join the Israelites.

4 He will stand and shepherd his flock
in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God.
And they will live securely, for then his greatness

will reach to the ends of the earth.

5 And he will be our peace

when the Assyrians invade our land and march through our fortresses.

We will raise against them seven shepherds,
even eight commanders,

6 who will rule^[c] the land of Assyria with the sword,
the land of Nimrod with drawn sword.^[d]

He will deliver us from the Assyrians when they invade our land and march across our borders.

— Discussion/Reflection Question —

1. Where do you usually look for peace when life feels threatened or overwhelming — and how well has that actually worked for you?
2. Do you agree that our deepest lack of peace comes from broken relationships — ultimately with God? What makes that hard to accept or believe?
