

Breakthrough

Writing to a primarily Gentile audience, Mark's account of the life of Jesus provided a breakthrough for people who knew nothing of the God who loved them.

Breaking Away From The Unforgivable Mark 3.20-30

There is a danger that if you keep refusing to follow Jesus, you may never follow Jesus.

Jesus And The Unpardonable Sin

The rare and specific unpardonable sin points to a common and general danger: Rejecting Jesus.

20 And He *came home, and the crowd *gathered again, to such an extent that they could not even eat a meal.

21 When His own people heard of this, they went out to take custody of Him; for they were saying, "He has lost His senses."

22 The SCRIBES who came down from Jerusalem were saying, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "He casts out the demons by the ruler of the demons."

23 And He called them to Himself and began speaking to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan?"

24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 If a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. 26 If Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but he is finished!

27 But no one can enter the strong man's house and plunder his property unless he first binds the strong man, and then he will plunder his house.

28 "Truly I say to you, all sins shall be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they utter;

29 but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin”— 30 because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

Some have rejected the call of Jesus to repent, believe and follow by a final, decisive and stubborn refusal to acknowledge what they know is true.

You And The Unpardonable Sin

The Unpardonable Sin is to clearly and deliberately reject the Holy Spirit revealed truth about Jesus by attributing his nature and his works to Satan.

Your problem is that you reject Jesus as Savior. The end result is the same.

Jesus says, “Repent, Believe, Follow.” You keep saying, “No.”

Be careful that you don’t reject Jesus so much that you become incapable of ever following him.
