

Devotion Info
- Hanging On A Prayer -

DAY 1: Read Philippians 1:8-11

[8] God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus. [9] I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. [10] For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. [11] May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

Philippians 1:8-11 NLT

- What do you think about the statement, “The presence of God is often revealed by the fruit of His Spirit?”

Application:

- What has to change in our prayer lives in order for our prayers to be effective and purposeful in the church?

DAY 2: Read Philippians 1:8-11

[8] God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus. [9] I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. [10] For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. [11] May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

Philippians 1:8-11 NLT

- In verse 9, what do Paul's words mean to you when he says, “And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more”?
- How can that happen?

(Cont'd next page)

DAY 3: Read Philippians 1:8-11

[8] God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus. [9] I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. [10] For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. [11] May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

Philippians 1:8-11 NLT

- What does their love abounding have to do with knowledge and discernment?
- Why is that important for us to understand in our church community?

DAY 4: Read Philippians 1:8-11

[8] God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus. [9] I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. [10] For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. [11] May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

Philippians 1:8-11 NLT

- Read verses 9-10. Why are these verses tied together in one thought?
- How are these two verses dependent on one another?

(Cont'd next page)

DAY 5: Read Philippians 1:8-11

[8] God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus. [9] I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. [10] For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. [11] May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

Philippians 1:8-11 NLT

- How is it possible to live our lives in accordance with verse 10? What does blameless mean?

Application:

- What has to change in our prayer lives in order for our prayers to be effective and purposeful in the church?

If you would like a daily reminder of these devotionals for each week's sermon, text "DEVO" to 512-877-5131 and you'll receive a text message after 8am Monday-Friday with a link to that day's devotional.