

Being Human Being Me

We Have A Chance

John 11

What chance do we have with God?

If You're Gonna Talk The Talk . . .

20 So then Martha, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went to meet Him, but Mary stayed in the house. 21 Martha then said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.

22 Even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You."

23 Jesus *said to her, "Your brother will rise from the dead."

24 Martha *said to Him, "I know that he will rise in the resurrection on the last day."

25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; the one who believes in Me will live, even if he dies, 26 and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?"

The ultimate question of life is "Do you believe this?"

27 She *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; I have come to believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, and He who comes into the world."

. . . You Better Walk The Walk

38 So Jesus, again being deeply moved within, *came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. 39 Jesus *said, "Remove the stone." Martha, the sister of the deceased, *said to Him, "Lord, by this time there will be a stench, for he has been dead four days."

40 Jesus *said to her, "Did I not say to you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God?" 41 So they removed the stone.

And Jesus raised His eyes, and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. 42 But I knew that You always hear Me; nevertheless, because of the people standing around I said it, so that they may believe that You sent Me.”

43 And when He had said these things, He cried out with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

44 Out came the man who had died, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth. Jesus *said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

45 Therefore many of the Jews who came to Mary, and saw what He had done, believed in Him.

As long as Lazarus lived , he was a walking, talking reminder that Jesus was the Messiah

And then he walked. And people saw him.

There's Always A Chance

Now we have a chance. All people have a chance.

God loves you because He created you in His image. Because He made you human.

To be human, to be me, is to have a chance of real life, eternal life.

We have no chance with God, except for Jesus. Then we all have a chance.
