

UNDERSTATEMENTS

Who JESUS Is

(MATTHEW 16:13-17)

Understating Jesus (or not) is the difference between eternal life and eternal death.

Matthew 16:13-17 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say the Son of Man is?”

A lot of people were saying a lot about Jesus

14 They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

Understating who Jesus is – is a matter of life and death.

The Disciples knew who Jesus was.

15 “But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?” 16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” 17 Jesus replied, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by flesh and blood, but by my Father in heaven.

It never mattered who people said Jesus was, what mattered was who he actually was.

When it comes to who Jesus is, your opinion doesn’t matter.

When it comes to your eternity, your opinion of who Jesus is matters a lot.

Understating Jesus (or not) is the difference between eternal life and eternal death.
