

The Resurrection Matters
4/17/22 (I Corinthians 15:1-4; 12-23)

I. _____ of the _____ - v.1-4

v.3 - Many things happened in connection with Jesus' death, but the key components are that it was _____, _____, and _____ - _____.
(Isaiah 53:3-8)

God's _____ could not be _____ merely by Jesus _____, it had to be _____ - _____.

II. _____ of No _____ - v.12-19

v.12 - _____ in Jesus' _____ is _____ for _____. (Romans 10:9)

If Jesus was not raised from the dead then:

1) Our _____ would be _____ - v.14-15

For Jesus to not have been resurrected would mean that Bible _____ have been _____, Jesus was _____, and that the _____, who were required to have _____ the _____ Christ, were the _____ of all _____. BUT, intentional _____ do not become _____.

2) Our _____ would be _____ - v.14, 17

3) You are _____ in your _____ - v.17

v.17 - Paul's point is that if Jesus was not raised, God still _____, He is still _____, and our _____ have still _____ us from _____.

4) Our _____ have _____ - v.18 5)
This _____ life is all that _____ - v.19

v.19 - This is not comparing a _____ life with a _____ life. It is comparing a _____ life with a life _____ for _____.

III. _____ of Jesus' _____ - v.20-26

1) Jesus was the _____ of _____ - v.20

2) _____ who _____ Christ have not _____ - v.18, 23

3) The _____ of _____ are _____ - v.21-22

v.22 - Adam was the _____ and _____ head of the human race. His _____ us.

Jesus' resurrection _____ that God _____ His _____ as _____ for our _____.

4) _____ in Christ is _____ - v.17

The Resurrection Matters
4/17/22 (I Corinthians 15:1-4; 12-23)

I. _____ of the _____ - v.1-4

v.3 - Many things happened in connection with Jesus' death, but the key components are that it was _____, _____, and _____ - _____.
(Isaiah 53:3-8)

God's _____ could not be _____ merely by Jesus _____, it had to be _____ - _____.

II. _____ of No _____ - v.12-19

v.12 - _____ in Jesus' _____ is _____ for _____. (Romans 10:9)

If Jesus was not raised from the dead then:

1) Our _____ would be _____ - v.14-15

For Jesus to not have been resurrected would mean that Bible _____ have been _____, Jesus was _____, and that the _____, who were required to have _____ the _____ Christ, were the _____ of all _____. BUT, intentional _____ do not become _____.

2) Our _____ would be _____ - v.14, 17

3) You are _____ in your _____ - v.17

v.17 - Paul's point is that if Jesus was not raised, God still _____, He is still _____, and our _____ have still _____ us from _____.

4) Our _____ have _____ - v.18 5)
This _____ life is all that _____ - v.19

v.19 - This is not comparing a _____ life with a _____ life. It is comparing a _____ life with a life _____ for _____.

III. _____ of Jesus' _____ - v.20-26

1) Jesus was the _____ of _____ - v.20

2) _____ who _____ Christ have not _____ - v.18, 23

3) The _____ of _____ are _____ - v.21-22

v.22 - Adam was the _____ and _____ head of the human race. His _____ us.

Jesus' resurrection _____ that God _____ His _____ as _____ for our _____.

4) _____ in Christ is _____ - v.17