

- The _____ allowance for _____ given by Jesus was in relation to _____.
He gave _____.
- Jesus calls _____ after a _____
_____, because in God's eyes the _____ is still _____.
- The _____ response in _____ shows the _____ of _____.

Biblically, only three things _____:

- _____ - Romans 7:2; I Corinthians 7:39
- _____ - Matthew 5:32; 19:9
- An _____ spouse _____ a _____ - I Corinthians 7:10-16

II. The _____ Marriage: _____ and the _____ Ephesians 5:22-33 - Basic observations from this include:

- v.32 - Paul's newly revealed mystery is that _____ marriages are meant to illustrate the _____ relationship between _____ and the _____.
- Marriage is to be the _____ of all _____.
- Husbands and wives are _____ on earth and in _____, but the _____ is appointed the _____-break _____. Along with that, he bears the _____ of greater _____.
- A godly wife's submission is like the submission of a godly _____ to _____, and godly _____ to their _____. The _____ is when they command us to _____.

- _____ husbands regularly _____ and consider the _____ of their _____.
- Paul has _____ as much to say to _____ as to _____, and they are told to be _____ the _____ of _____.
- Christ's Husband-love for us is not based on something as _____ as _____, _____, or _____.
- Husbands and wives are both _____ for the _____ and _____, but the husband _____. He is to _____ and _____ his wife which includes _____ and _____ and _____.
- Many husbands gladly _____ their _____ because it is _____.

Several things in Genesis 2:21-25 are seen in _____:

- God's Son _____ His _____ (for a time) to _____ His _____.
- To create His _____, God put _____ into "a _____."
- Once His _____ was _____, God " _____ His _____."
- _____ knows _____ about _____ and _____ us.
- When the _____ is complete, as _____ of the Bride, God will _____ the _____ to Christ.
- Jesus will _____ His _____.

God's Gift of Marriage - 6/14/26 (Genesis 2:24-25)

I. The _____ and _____ of Marriage - v.24-25

v.24 - God established _____ as the _____ human _____. God's command to honor father and mother is for _____, but the _____ of husband and wife _____ that of _____.

v.24 - The Amplified Bible states that 'one flesh' "suggests both a _____, _____ and a _____ relationship." To have _____ is to become _____ with someone. (I Cor. 6:12-20)

v.24 - This is God endorsing His _____ of _____ within marriage. The ESV Study Bible notes that God created "only _____ for Adam, not _____ or _____ Adam. This points to _____ as the divine _____ for marriage that God established at _____." (Hebrews 13:4)

v.25 - _____ chapter 3 the original couple were fully _____ before _____ and each _____, yet were _____ because they were _____ and therefore _____.

Matthew 19:1-12 - Basic observations of this text include:

- The Pharisees were fixated on what God's _____ in _____, but Jesus cared about God's _____ in _____.