When reading the Bible, ask yourself:

What does this tell me about God?

What does this tell me about people?

What does this show me about myself? (What do I do with this?)

In some way, on this road Jesus revealed the _____ of your sin to you.

Joy-based repentance makes us _____ sin. - Timothy Keller

Joy-based repentance is Ananias's shift from "but Lord" to "brother Saul." This kind of obedience or submission is the opposite of _____. This is what authentic worship does.

Any suffering Jesus inflicts is a part of his _____ (sanctifying) process.

The question is whether or not you _____ God despite suffering or whether you are nursing idols that keep you insignificant.

To Think About:

What is the one thing you want to take with you?

Who will you share this with this week? _____
