Ice-Breaker:

Do you remember saving your money for something that you felt you couldn't live without when you were in high school? What was it, and how long did you keep it after you bought it?

Discussion Questions:

Read Matthew 6:6:19-20

1. Describe the tension we wrestle with to save our resources for the future to provide for our family versus saving from a place of fear or materialism?
2. Pastor Korey talked about checking your storehouse. Was he speaking about saving for the future or the mindset you do it with? How often do you think of your future security?

Read Matthew 6:21-22

3. On a scale of 1 to 10, with one being never and 10 being every day, where do you rate yourself on how often you notice material or positional things in your life that you covet in an unhealthy manner?
4. What about our culture drives our desire to acquire more than we have? Can you think of any ways that this drive is spiritually healthy? What are they?

Read Matthew 6:24; 1 Corinthians 6:19-20; John 8:12

5. If you take an honest assessment of your monetary desires or how you see wealth in the world around you, can you describe what must change to make Matthew 6:24 more than conceptual?

Application:

- How can your Life Group bring accountability so you can mature in your relationship with Christ around these two masters we struggle with?
- How can your Life Group celebrate your financial freedom as you gain health in this part of your life?
