Jesus Paid It All
Mark 1:40-45

Post this to your Facebook and Twitter to help share the gospel with your friends.

Be filled with compassion and willing to touch the lives of others.

Mark 1:40-45, A man with leprosy came to him and begged him on his knees, "If you are willing, you can make me clean."

Jesus was indignant. He reached out his hand and touched the man. "I am willing," he said. "Be clean!" Immediately the leprosy left him and he was cleansed.

Jesus sent him away at once with a strong warning: "See that you don't tell this to anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them." Instead he went out and began to talk freely, spreading the news. As a result, Jesus could no longer enter a town openly but stayed outside in lonely places. Yet the people still came to him from everywhere.

1. The leper said, "If you are willing..."

2. Filled with compassion he reached out and touched.

3. Jesus said, "I am willing..."

1 Peter 2:24, "He himself bore our sins" in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; "by his wounds you have been healed."

[Story Behind The Hymn] READ BETWEEN THE LINES Jesus Paid It All

Jesus Paid It All is a traditional American hymn about the penal substitutionary atonement for sin by the death of Jesus. The song references many Bible verses, including Romans 5 (Jesus' sacrifice gives life) and Isaiah 1:18 (a crimson flow).

The song lyrics were written in 1865 by Elvina M. Hall (1818-1889), a 47-year-old, widowed congregant, who was listening to a church sermon and prayer and penned the words on the back of a hymnal while sitting in a choir loft in the Monument Methodist Episcopal Church in Baltimore, Maryland, and she gave the lyrics to her pastor, Rev. George W. Schreck, at the end of the church service. Coincidentally, that same week the church organist (and coal merchant), John Grape (1835-1915), shared some new music, entitled "All To Christ I Owe," with the same pastor who thought the lyrics and song fit well together. Hall and Grape worked to finish the hymn together, and then at Schreck's urging, they sent the hymn to Professor Theodore Perkins, publisher of the Sabbath Carols periodical, where it received its first publication. It has been a favorite of many American Christians ever since.

Hall was a member of the church for forty years. In 1885 Hall remarried to Thomas Myers (1813-1894), a Methodist minister, at the home of her daughter, Ella. Elvina Hall died in Ocean Grove, New Jersey on July 18, 1889, and her funeral was held at the Strawbridge Methodist Church, and she was buried in the Green Mount Cemetery in Baltimore.

HMMM...

1. Read the three verses from the hymn Jesus Paid It All.

What does each verse declare about our Father's character?

2. Read Mark 1:40-45 and comment about Pastor Scott's three points.

1) "If you are willing..."

2) Filled with compassion, Jesus touched him.

3) Jesus replied, "I am willing."
