

| | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Advent The Arrival | Cory Johnson November 28, 2021 Luke 1:26-38; Proverbs 9:10, 3:5-6, 20:9, 16:16 Deuteronomy 10:12; Psalms 130:4; 2 Corinthians 5:21 |
|-------------------------------|---|

Mary responds with _____.

Wisdom and understanding _____ with God.

Faith and Reason: Faith is your view of _____. It is the foundation from which all of your _____ comes.

The fear of the LORD: If you understand your greatest _____, you will understand what you _____ most in life. By understanding your greatest _____, you will see your greatest _____.

The fear of the LORD is the first step to _____ God. _____ God isn't the same as knowing _____ Him.

When God is _____, the things that are more _____ are money, sex, power, career, health, and family...

To fear the Lord is to have God become _____ and the rest of life be _____ in comparison.

Unconditional Trust:

1. Look at every area of your life—are you willing to _____ what God says about this area from scripture whether you _____ with it or not?
2. Are you willing to _____ anything that God sends into that area whether you _____ it or not?

We all start with _____. "I'll pray if I feel like..., or if my life improves." It's a try-out for God.

On the other side of it are your conditions, are your _____ trusts. "I will obey you if..."

God's love and faithfulness is what saves me from my _____.