

Until the whole world hears...

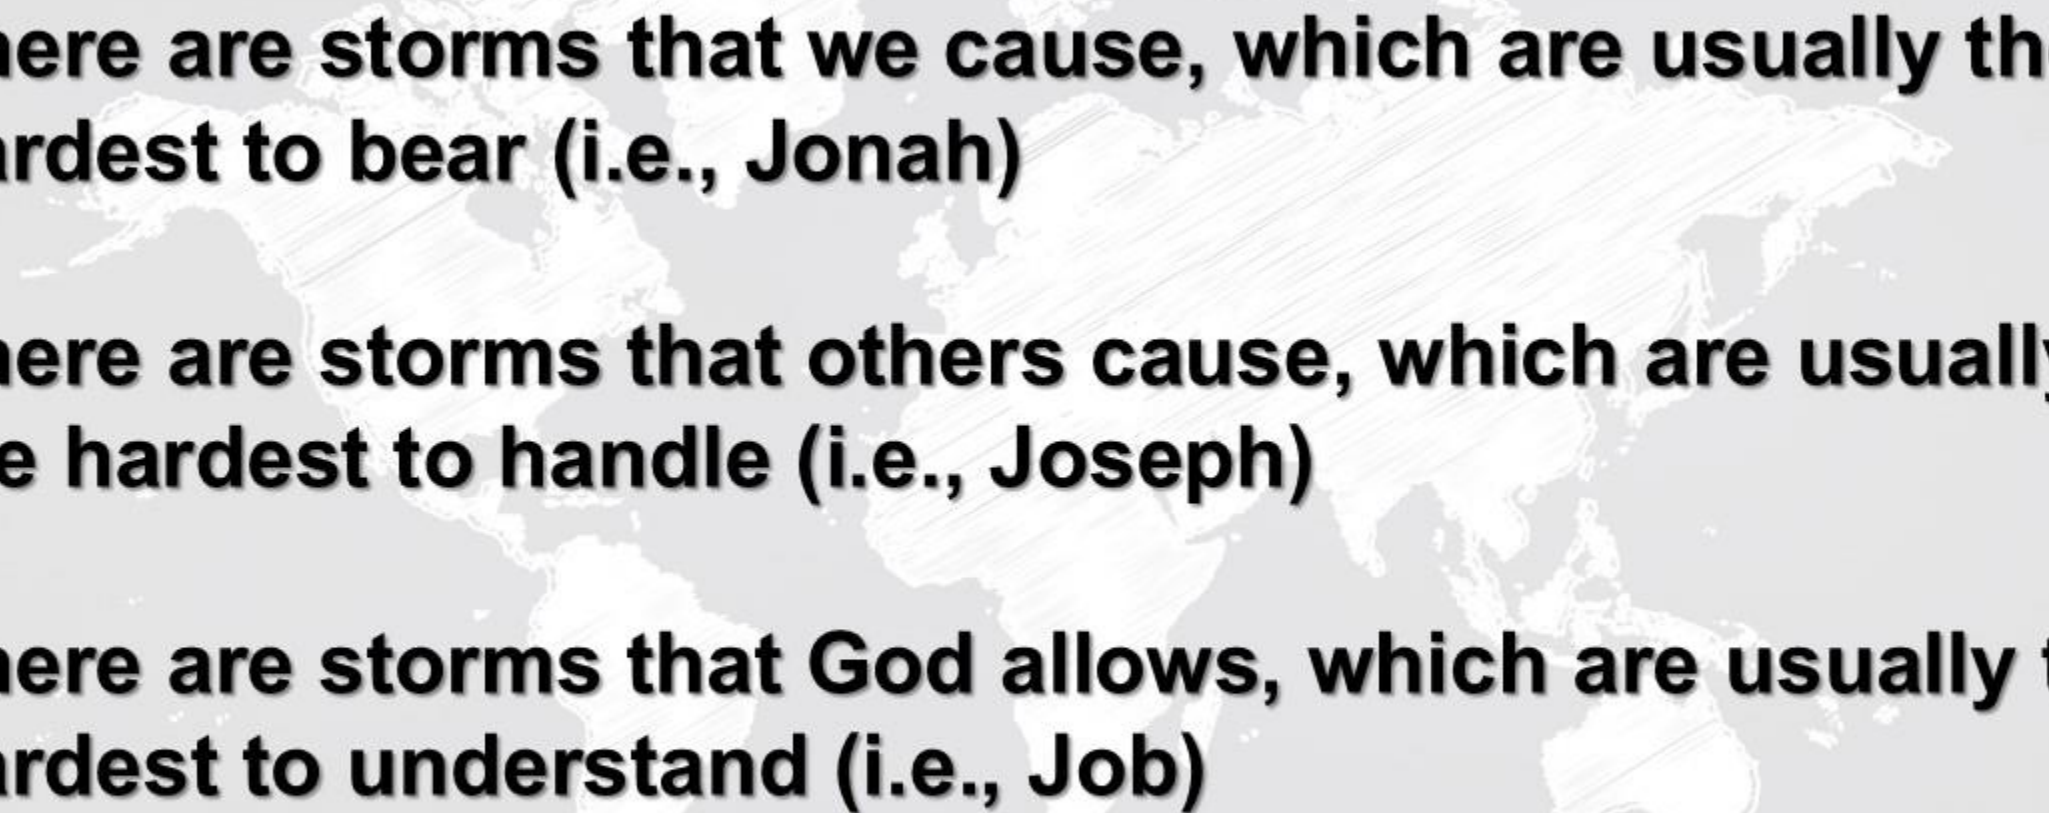

When the Storm Wrecks Your Ship

(Acts 27)

- Seek to understand the reason for the storm

◀◀ Sent: Until the whole world hears ▶▶

Three Types of Storms

-
- There are storms that we cause, which are usually the hardest to bear (i.e., Jonah)
 - There are storms that others cause, which are usually the hardest to handle (i.e., Joseph)
 - There are storms that God allows, which are usually the hardest to understand (i.e., Job)

◀◀ Sent: Until the whole world hears ▶▶

Seek to understand the reason

- Ships can be wrecked when counsel is mishandled
- Ships can be wrecked when the crowd is mimicked
- Ships can be wrecked when circumstances are misinterpreted

◀◀ Sent: Until the whole world hears ▶▶

-
- Seek to understand the reason for the storm
 - Seek to utilize available resources during the storm

◀◀ Sent: Until the whole world hears ▶▶

Seek to utilize available resources

-
- We have available to us the anchor of God's presence
 - We have available to us the anchor of prayer
 - We have available to us the anchor of God's promise
 - We have available to us the anchor of God's purpose

◀◀ Sent: Until the whole world hears ▶▶

-
- Seek to understand the reason for the storm
 - Seek to utilize available resources during the storm
 - Seek to uphold the right response to the storm

◀◀ Sent: Until the whole world hears ▶▶

Seek to uphold the right response

- Don't respond by drifting
- Don't respond by discarding
- Don't respond by despairing

◀◀ Sent: Until the whole world hears ▶▶