

The One Who . . .

The One Who Became Human
John 1.9-14

The One Who is God, is also the One Who was man. This matters.

Seeing is Believing

9 There was the true Light which, coming into the world, enlightens every man.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him.

11 He came to His own, and those who were His own did not receive Him.

12 But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name,

13 who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.

Without the Incarnation the Resurrection has no value for us

The Word is God and the Word is man.

Only The Word, Jesus, is qualified and capable of bringing us to God

Who Do You See In Jesus?

The One who is fully and completely God. He always has the power, knowledge and authority that belongs to God alone. But he did not fully and completely exercise his right while on earth.

The One who was fully and completely human. He had all the temptations, feelings and emotions that belong to humans. But he never sinned.

As God He is the one who has Authority As man He is the one who has Authenticity. He is the One and only One who can bring you to God and forever change your life.
