

The Year That Seems Lost

A New Hope

Luke 1.5-17

When there is nowhere else to go and no one else to turn to, there is Jesus. In Jesus there is always hope.

God Seemed Silent And Far Away

And it is he who will go as a forerunner before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers back to their children, and the disobedient to the attitude of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.”

Jesus brought hope, a new hope.

With Jesus there is always hope

Hope is the confident assurance that, in Jesus, God fulfills His revelation.

Following Jesus is not an act of desperation. It is an act of faith and hope. We have confidence in Jesus.

Hope allows us to rejoice in Jesus.

Our hope isn't that our life will get better or easier. Our hope is that our life will be where Jesus wants it to be.

But, ultimately, when it comes to hope, he is your only option. There is no hope outside of Jesus.
