

The Night Before: John 13

The Example

John 13:5-11

5 After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

6 He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

7 Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

8 "No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

9 "Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

10 Jesus answered, "Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you."

11 For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

Love looks a lot like serving one another

Every Picture Tells A Story

How did Jesus deal with arrogance and rebellion? He washed the feet of the arrogant and rebellious. Right before he went to the cross. That's the picture.

What Story Does Our Picture Tell?

You will never tell a compelling story until you view yourself as a servant of others.

We have faith, we live by faith, and we share faith.

Do not get sucked in to a false story painted by society and culture. The world is not divided by pandemics and protests, by race and ethnicity, or even by justice and injustice. It is divided by sin.

Every social issue we face today existed in some form in Jesus' day. His solution was the cross.

For the follower of Jesus, everything ultimately comes back to the cross.

What does love look like now becomes what does serving look like?
