

Clear Perspective for Proper Investing - 1/5/20 (Matthew 6:19-24)

I. Jesus Contrasts _____ Sets of _____ - v.19-20

The idea of “_____” can include our _____ and our life’s _____, but v.24 shows that Jesus clearly speaks of our _____ and _____.

Verse 19 is not a call to _____ as if it is _____; nor an attack on financial _____ and _____ as if they are _____. The Bible:

- Calls us to _____ for the _____ - Prov. 6:6-11
- Calls us to _____ for our _____ - I Tim. 5:8
- Says that God _____ us _____ things to _____ - I Timothy 6:17-19

II. Jesus Calls for _____ to Two _____ - v.19-21

“When we _____ possessions simply for our own sakes - whether to _____ or to spend _____ and _____ - those possessions become _____.”
- MacArthur

Jesus teaches that _____ is both a _____ and an _____. He calls us to _____ His resources in a way we will be _____ of in _____.

In proper _____, _____ and _____ can be a great source of _____. But they can become an _____ if they receive more _____, _____, _____ and _____ than God.

Many Christians give little _____ to the _____ life because they are too _____ in _____ life.

III. Jesus Calls for a _____ - v.22-23

Clear _____ is vital to making _____. We cannot _____ while _____ in the _____ direction or trying to _____ in _____ directions.

A person has a “_____” eye when they are not able to be _____ for _____ because their _____ is too _____ on _____.

IV. Jesus Calls for _____ to One _____ - v.24

The word “_____” is from the Greek word for _____. The word for “masters” denotes “absolute _____”. Jesus is not using language about _____, but rather _____.

“In regard to God we have no _____ of our _____; God must be _____ Master of our lives.” - Barclay

Jesus demands our _____, _____, & _____.

Clear Perspective for Proper Investing - 1/5/20 (Matthew 6:19-24)

I. Jesus Contrasts _____ Sets of _____ - v.19-20

The idea of “_____” can include our _____ and our life’s _____, but v.24 shows that Jesus clearly speaks of our _____ and _____.

Verse 19 is not a call to _____ as if it is _____; nor an attack on financial _____ and _____ as if they are _____. The Bible:

- Calls us to _____ for the _____ - Prov. 6:6-11
- Calls us to _____ for our _____ - I Tim. 5:8
- Says that God _____ us _____ things to _____ - I Timothy 6:17-19

II. Jesus Calls for _____ to Two _____ - v.19-21

“When we _____ possessions simply for our own sakes - whether to _____ or to spend _____ and _____ - those possessions become _____.”
- MacArthur

Jesus teaches that _____ is both a _____ and an _____. He calls us to _____ His resources in a way we will be _____ of in _____.

In proper _____, _____ and _____ can be a great source of _____. But they can become an _____ if they receive more _____, _____, _____ and _____ than God.

Many Christians give little _____ to the _____ life because they are too _____ in _____ life.

III. Jesus Calls for a _____ - v.22-23

Clear _____ is vital to making _____. We cannot _____ while _____ in the _____ direction or trying to _____ in _____ directions.

A person has a “_____” eye when they are not able to be _____ for _____ because their _____ is too _____ on _____.

IV. Jesus Calls for _____ to One _____ - v.24

The word “_____” is from the Greek word for _____. The word for “masters” denotes “absolute _____”. Jesus is not using language about _____, but rather _____.

“In regard to God we have no _____ of our _____; God must be _____ Master of our lives.” - Barclay

Jesus demands our _____, _____, & _____.