

Sorted: The Return Of Jesus and the End of it All

One day Jesus will return and he will make all things right

Everybody Spends Forever Somewhere
Mt. 25. 31-46

You will spend eternity somewhere

As Clear As It Gets

Without hell people who rejected God would never experience the accountability of their actions.

Without hell how can we consider God just?

31 “But when the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on His glorious throne.

32 And all the nations will be gathered before Him; and He will separate them from one another, just as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats; 33 and He will put the sheep on His right, but the goats on the left.

34 “Then the King will say to those on His right, ‘Come, you who are blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

41 “Then He will also say to those on His left, ‘Depart from Me, you accursed people, into the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels

46 These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

We come to judgement with a character not determined by our works, but by our relationship to Jesus.

If you decided to reject God in this life, He will honor your decision in the next.

Life Without Consequences

We are accountable.

Judgment awaits everyone.

We are not all going in the same direction by different roads.

Christianity is a relationship with Jesus.

The final judgment determines nothing, but reveals everything. It reveals where you get to spend forever.
