

The Cross of Christ

For the follower of Jesus everything comes back to the cross

You cannot separate the cross from Christianity

The Heart Of The Cross

Romans 5.6-8

At the heart of the cross, that is, the decision for Jesus to die on the cross, is God's love for us.

How Do I Know God Loves Me?

While we may now live forever, we have not lived forever.

6. For while we were still helpless, at the right time, Christ died for the ungodly.

7. For one will hardly die for a righteous person; though perhaps for the good person someone would even dare to die.

8 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

God decided to show the full capacity of His love for us in sending Jesus to die on the cross for us.

God did this not because of us, but for us. He loves us even though we reject Him in thought and action.

I know God loves me because He sent His son Jesus to die in my place.

A Heart For What Matters

Why do you risk an eternity separated from God for events and actions you have no involvement in or control over?

Why do you risk an eternity separated from God for events and actions you have involvement in or control over?

The very fact that God loves you even in your rebellion should be the deciding factor in following Jesus.

Romans 10.9-10 NLT

9 If you openly declare that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For it is by believing in your heart that you are made right with God, and it is by openly declaring your faith that you are saved.

If God has a heart for you, why don't you have a heart for God?
