

God's Kindness Leads to Repentance Romans 2:1-4

You see God's love, his kindness is meant to lead us to repentance.

Repentance means changing your mind and, consequently, your behavior.

Romans 2:1

Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things.

Romans 2:2-3

We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who practice such things. Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who practice such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God?

Apart from Jesus, whether we are a person obviously doing what is wrong or a "Good Person," we are in the same boat. Deserving God's judgment.

Romans 2:4

Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?

God holds back his judgment and gives grace and mercy because He wants to give us an opportunity to be saved.

God extends His kindness to you. The question is, what are you going to do with it? Are you going to ignore it, or step out in faith and let it change and transform your life?
