

1 Peter: Being A Believer In A Non-Believing Culture

Being a Believer in a Non-Believing Culture requires a commitment to Jesus that surpasses any commitment of any person who is not a follower of Christ.

Persevere In Faith

1 Peter 5:6-9

6 Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the proper time,

7 casting all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you.

8 Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.

9 But resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same experiences of suffering are being accomplished by your brethren who are in the world.

If you get nothing else from this series get this; a believer in Christ, in dealing with a hostile culture, continues, through their faith, to follow Christ.

1 Peter 5:4 And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.

When dealing with hostility because of your faith in Christ, trust Him through the entire process.

It is through faith we are saved. And it is through faith that we persevere.

The hostility we face is part of an ongoing battle of rebellion against God. We're just taking God's side.

As a believer and follower of Jesus in a hostile culture remember this: we are chosen by God to have faith. So, have faith.
