

BEAUTIFUL SONGS FOR A Wonderful Christmas

Luke 1:57-69

Now the time had come for Elizabeth to give birth, and she gave birth to a son. Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had displayed His great mercy toward her; and they were rejoicing with her. And it happened that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to call him Zechariah, after his father. And yet his mother responded and said, “No indeed; but he shall be called John.” And they said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.” And they made signs to his father, as to what he wanted him called. And he asked for a tablet and wrote as follows, “His name is John.”

And they were all amazed. And at once his mouth was opened and his tongue freed, and he began speaking in praise of God. And fear came on all those who lived around them; and all these matters were being talked about in the entire hill country of Judea. All who heard them kept them in mind, saying, "What then will this child turn out to be?” For indeed the hand of the Lord was with him. And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying: “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, For He has visited us and accomplished redemption for His people, and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David.”

The background of the image is a dark blue gradient. Overlaid on this background are faint, light blue musical staves and notes. The staves are curved and intersect, creating a complex pattern. Several musical notes, including quarter notes and eighth notes, are scattered across the staves. The word "DOUBT" is centered in the middle of the image.
