

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS | LAZARUS | MAY 19, 2024

Read Luke 16:19-21. Who do you encounter every day in your path that you could share the love of Jesus?

Read Luke 16:22-23. Death comes for us all. Have you thought about your eternity lately?

How can you best invest your life in a way that matters?

Read Luke 16:24. The rich man wanted nothing to do with Lazarus during his lifetime, yet with the circumstances he found himself in, he wanted something from Lazarus. Are you guilty of similar self-serving motives with others?

Read Luke 16:25-26. Since none of us know how much time we're granted, isn't it wise for us to use our lives making good decisions that serve the Lord while we have the opportunity?

Read Luke 16:27-31. Think of those around you that are lost. Do you make time to share the hope Jesus brings with them and pray they come to know Jesus while there is still time?

Read 1 Tim 2:3-4 and Romans 1:21-22.

God wants no one to perish and sent His son to die in our place. Discuss how God loves us so much, He also gives us free will, the will to choose or reject Him, and ultimately choosing our eternal destiny.

Read Romans 5:8. Christ died for us while we were still deep in sin. Shouldn't we model this unconditional love to those around us? How freeing is it that you can come to Jesus as you are?

Pastor Brad said, "Our community needs a church to love, serve and plead with them to come to know our Jesus." How can you do your part to accomplish this mission?
