JAIRUS' DAUGHTER

Mark 5:21-43

1. Jesus was the God of miracles then and He is the God of miracles _____.
2. Jesus makes it a point that although He had the power to heal, Jairus and the woman accessed His power by _____.
3. True faith means that we trust God for His healing and breakthrough, as well as trusting God in the _____ and the _____.
  - True faith means we even trust God when the answer is a _____.
4. If we find in ourselves offense that Jesus sometimes heals some and not others, then we have placed the emphasis on Jesus' work to make life _____ as opposed to making life _____.
  - The promise to the believer is equal parts a promise of access to the miracle working God as well as affliction and persecution for following Him.
  - As we look to the Lord to work miracles in our lives we need to keep Heaven's perspective in mind, not just our earthly perspective.
