

It Begins

No story matters more than the story of Jesus

Acts 2.37-41

The story of Jesus is a story that moves us to a response

The Story Of Jesus Is A Story Of Conviction

The Holy Spirit convicts us of sin and convinces us of our need for Jesus.

37 Now when they heard this, they were pierced to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brethren, what shall we do?”

Encountering Jesus should lead to brokenness.

What do you do when you encounter Jesus?

The Story Of Jesus Is A Story Of Movement

38 Peter said to them, “Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins;

and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

39 For the promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself.”

Anyone can follow Jesus.

The best way to respond to the story of Jesus is with repentance and faith.

The Story Of Jesus Is A Story That Changes Lives

Story of Jesus is a story of salvation. It is a story of change.

40 And with many other words he solemnly testified and kept on exhorting them, saying, “Be saved from this perverse generation!”

41 So then, those who had received his word were baptized; and that day there were added about three thousand souls.

Jesus saves. This is his story. And it can be your story.
