

A Healthy Body Part 2 - 5/20/18

(Romans 12:9-13)

I. A Healthy Body is _____ - v.9a, 10, 13

II. A Healthy Body is _____ - v.9b _____ is one way to express true love. When our love is _____ it stirs up _____ of anything _____ or _____ those we love.

There is such a thing as _____ and such a thing as _____, and both are defined by God's _____.

Piper points out that the only hope we have of fulfilling v.9b is to have a new _____ and receive a new _____ as promised in Ezekiel 36:26-27.

III. A Healthy Body is _____ with a Fervent Spirit - v.11

We are called to not be _____ and sluggish, and to do things for _____. And if something is worth doing we should give our _____ and do it with _____.

Nothing else we do in life should be as _____ as our _____ of God and our _____ for God.

“Serve the Lord” has been translated as “_____ your opportunities”. _____ is limitless, but _____ isn't.

IV. A Healthy Body is _____ - v.12 Christian hope is not _____ thinking, but rather confident _____ that the _____ is truly still _____. Hope is less something we _____ and more of something we _____.

Tribulation is _____, and even _____.
(John 16:33; II Timothy 3:12)

Trials and pain are not _____, and we know they _____ a _____ God has determined. (James 1:2-4)

We all face _____ but we will not _____ if we properly connect the elements of Romans 12:12. Joy-filled _____ (confident expectation) _____ endurance; but _____ prayer _____ joy-filled hope.

The reality of Paul's _____ in II Corinthians 12:1-10 gave him joyful _____ and patient _____ amid tribulation; and the realities on _____ made him desperate in _____ to God.

It sounds foreign to those who've never learned to _____, but genuine _____ is a _____ of _____.

_____ is coming, but so is _____. And _____ brings joy and endurance amid _____.