3 All my prayers for
you are full of praise
to God! 4 When I
pray for you, my heart is full of joy

5 because of all your wonderful help in making known the Good News about Christ
from the time you first heard it until now.

6 And I am sure that God who began the good work within you

will keep right on helping you grow in his grace until his task
within you is finally finished

on that day
when Jesus Christ returns.

It's a finger trap, keep you where you're at You've gotta lean in
to get out
See where the pavement
gives way, to the flowers
The new life is growing in the layers you shed, Even the pavement gives way To the flowers

5 “Who is speaking, sir?” Paul asked. And the voice replied, “I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting! 6 Now get up and go into the city and await my further instructions.”

7 The men with Paul stood speechless with surprise, for they heard the sound of someone's voice but saw no one!
8-9 As Paul picked himself up off the ground, he found that he was blind. He had to be led into Damascus and was there three days, blind, going without food and water all that time.

And I am sure that God who began the good work within you will keep right on helping you grow in his grace until his task is finally finished on that day when Jesus Christ returns.

Late that evening, when all the shoppers had gone and the doors were shut and locked, Corduroy climbed carefully down from his shelf and began searching everywhere on the floor for his lost button.
