

Scriptures from New International Version unless noted

Pay Attention to Your

We create and often abide by our self-imposed narratives, whether they are accurate or not, and this can lead you to become your own worst enemy.

Every habit begins with the first time.
Every pattern begins with a first line.
Every journey begins with a first step.

Narratives create excuses. They empower us to avoid things we should not avoid, and they empower us to embrace things we should stay away from.

1) People are property
2) Might makes right.
3) The God's determined the fate of the individuals.

For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We are demolishing arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God and we take captive every thought to make it obedient, to make it obedient to Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:3-5

"Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us." Jesus answered: "Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father."

John 14:8-9

"…everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock."

Matthew 7:24

"But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand."

Matthew 7:26

…we will be ready to punish every act of disobedience, once your obedience is complete.

2 Corinthians 10:6

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16

…You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your bodies.
1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Commitment:
I will demolish every narrative that conflicts with the value system introduced by Jesus
