

Jude

What Awaits The Rebellious

Jude 14-16

Those who rebel against God and reject Jesus as Lord will face the eternal judgement of God. God is not ok with you rebelling against Him.

How Can God Send People To Hell?

Matthew 25.41 “Then He will also say to those on His left, ‘Depart from Me, accursed ones, into the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels;’” . . . 46 “These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

Truth exists whether we believe it or not.

4 For certain persons have crept in unnoticed, those who were long beforehand marked out for this condemnation, ungodly persons who turn the grace of our God into licentiousness and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

14 It was also about these men that Enoch, in the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, saying, “Behold, the Lord came with many thousands of His holy ones,

15 to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their ungodly deeds which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him.”

16 These are grumblers, finding fault, following after their own lusts; they speak arrogantly, flattering people for the sake of gaining an advantage.

The words and actions of the False Teachers were evidence of their rejection of Jesus. The Lord’s judgment was just and it was certain.

Hell is God giving those in rebellion what they chose in this life for all eternity, life without Him.

Get People To Jesus

For Jude, it was all about Jesus because he understood the alternative was the judgment of God.

We don't create our own reality. We create our rebellion against God. Reality is created by God. And it involves judgment for our rebellion.

But, in His love for us, God provided a way out of judgment. That way is Jesus. Follow Jesus.

If you really love people, get them to Jesus.
