

The Temptation of Jesus by Satan - 3/17/19 (Matthew 4:1-11)

Sometimes God's _____ allows His _____ to be _____ . (I Peter 3:16-18)

I. _____ Questions

1) What was the _____ of Jesus being _____ ?

- To _____ Jesus' _____ - Heb. 2:14-18; 4:15-16
- To _____ Jesus is the _____ Son of _____
- To show that being _____ is not a _____ event
- To _____ the _____ Satan _____
- To illustrate _____ to _____ temptation

2) Is being _____ the _____ as _____ ?

- To be _____ is not _____ of _____ . being _____ the _____ as _____ ?
- It _____ sin when we give it a _____ in our _____ , and let it move to our _____ to affect our _____ . It is the _____ thought.

3) How can _____ say _____ is _____ tempted by sin, yet _____ was tempted? How can it say _____ does not _____ any _____ ?

- _____ cannot be _____ ; but as an actual _____ , _____ could be _____ .
- God _____ temptation is not _____ to God _____ .
- The word “tempt” can mean “to _____ , tempt; to try to trap; to _____ .” God was _____ Jesus, but Satan was _____ Jesus to _____ .

The best _____ of Scripture is _____ . Interpret _____ passages in light of _____ ones.

I Corinthians 10:13 - God _____ puts anyone in a position that they _____ fall into _____ .

4) Was it _____ Jesus _____ have _____ ?

- Jesus is _____ . His _____ nature is more _____ to _____ than His _____ nature could ever be _____ by _____ .
- It was God's _____ plan for Jesus to be sinless

II. The Varied _____ of _____ - I John 2:15-17

Satan tempted _____ the same as he did _____ & _____;
with the desires of the _____, the desires of the _____, and the _____ of _____.

Of v.2-3 MacArthur writes: "Satan was hoping to persuade Jesus to _____ His _____ to verify that it was real. That would mean _____ God's plan that He set that _____ aside in _____ and use it only when the _____ willed.

Satan wanted _____ to _____ God."

•