

We've entered a section of Luke's gospel where he is showing he increasing divide that is developing between Jesus and the religious leaders of the day. List three of four examples of the growing divide that Luke shares with us here in chapter 5 and looking ahead into chapter 6.

How did Jesus specifically address the religious leaders in His famed Sermon on the Mount? (hint: See Matthew 6).

Do you ever find yourself 'seeking to be seen' when you pray, give fast? Why do you think that is? Why is that harmful? How might you approach these three disciplines (praying, giving, fasting) and others going forward?

What is the difference between works-based righteousness and grace-based righteousness? What does works-based righteousness lead to?

What is one thing you learned this week that you would like to apply to your life going forward?
