

RECLAIM

RECLAIMING ALL THINGS TO JESUS

READY

SET

GO

STOP

For the director of music Of the Sons
of Korah.

According to alamoth. A song

READY

GO

STOP

To the Chief Musician. He who could sing other Psalms
so well was fitly entrusted with this noble ode.

The background of the image shows a dark, atmospheric road scene. In the center, a vertical signpost holds two signs: a rectangular 'READY SET GO' sign at the top and an octagonal 'STOP' sign below it. The road is flanked by dark, silhouetted hills or trees, and the overall lighting is dim, creating a moody and contemplative atmosphere.

“Trifles may be left to commoner
songsters, but the most skillful musician in Israel must be charged with the due performance of this song, with the most harmonies
voices and choices music.
For the Sons of Korah.”
Charles Spurgeon

God is our refuge and
strength, an ever-
present help in trouble.
Therefore we will not
fear, though the earth
give way and the
mountains fall into the
heart of the sea.
Psalm 46: 1,2,

Be still, and know that I am God; I will be
exalted among the
nations, I will be
exalted in the earth.
Psalm 46: 10

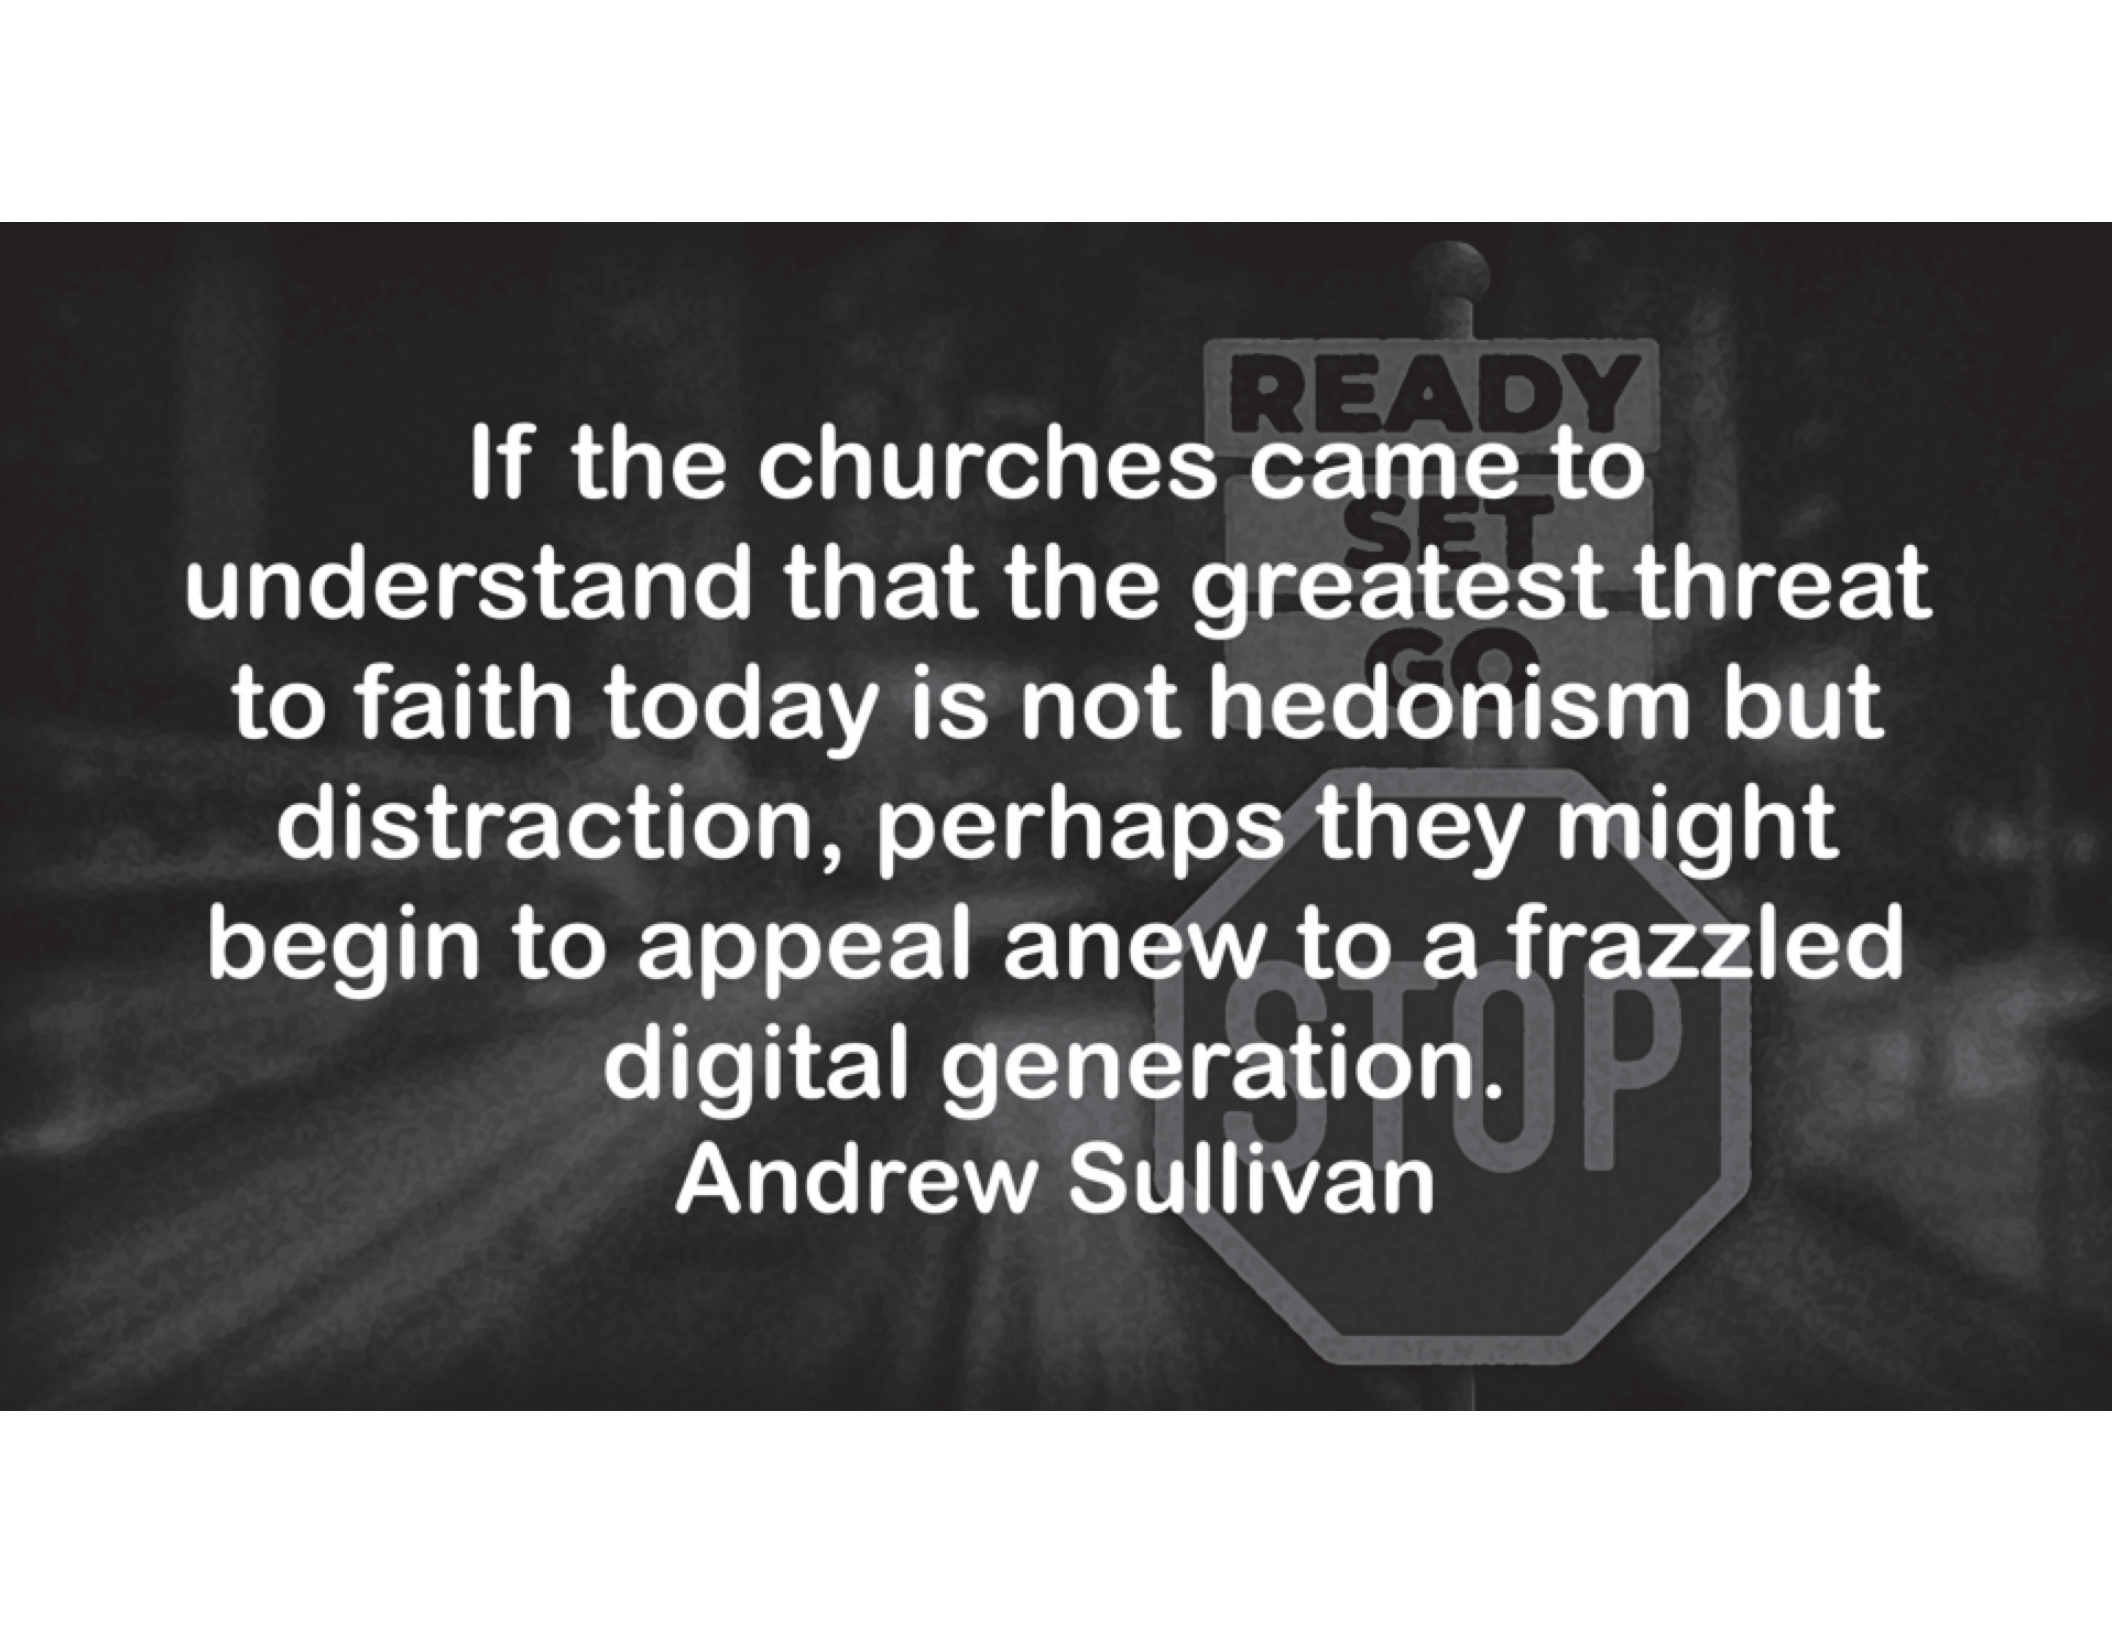

Solitude, silence, and
prayer are often the
best ways to self-
knowledge.
Henri Nouwen

The background of the slide features a dark, atmospheric image. In the center, there is a large, semi-transparent graphic of a 'READY SET GO' sign, which is a rectangular sign with the words 'READY', 'SET', and 'GO' stacked vertically. Below this, there is a large, semi-transparent octagonal 'STOP' sign. The text of the quote is overlaid on this background in a white, sans-serif font.

We must individually hear Him speaking to the heart. When every other voice is hushed, and in quietness we wait before him, the silence of the soul makes more distinct the voice of God...Here alone can true rest be found.
E. White, Desire of Ages, pg. 363

The background of the slide features a dark, textured image. In the center, there is a vertical signpost. The top part of the signpost has a rectangular sign that reads 'READY SET GO' in bold, capital letters. Below this, there is an octagonal stop sign with the word 'STOP' in large, bold, capital letters. The text of the quote is overlaid on this background.

If the churches came to understand that the greatest threat to faith today is not hedonism but distraction, perhaps they might begin to appeal anew to a frazzled digital generation.
Andrew Sullivan

Be still, and KNOW
that I am God; I will be
exalted among the
nations, I will be
exalted in the earth.
Psalm 46:10

The Lord Almighty is
with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress
Psalm 46:11

Be still, and know that I am God; I will be
exalted among the
nations, I will be
exalted in the earth.
Psalm 46: 10
