

LIVING IN THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Potter and the Clay

Read Isaiah 64:8-9, Jeremiah 18:1-6

- What part of the “potter and clay” image stood out most to you? Why?
- In what ways have you seen your life shaped by people, experiences or circumstances?

These passages each talk about the work the Holy Spirit wants to do in our lives: John 14:16-18 & 16:8-13, Acts 9:31, Romans 8:14 & 14:17, 1 Corinthians 12:3. Galatians 5:22-25, Ephesians 3:16, 1 Thessalonians 1:4-5, Titus 3:5

- What work of the Holy Spirit have you experienced in your life?
- What work is needed right now? Ask the Holy Spirit to do this specific work in you.

What does it mean for you to “stay on the potter’s wheel”?

- What are some ways we might take ourselves out of God’s hands?
- Why is yielding to the Holy Spirit a daily decision rather than a one-time event? Pray daily for the Holy Spirit to “melt you, mold you, fill you and use you”.

Read (memorize) Galatians 5:22-23

- Which fruit of the Spirit do you most need God to grow in you right now? Ask God to produce it.

How does the idea of God using both good and painful experiences change the perspective on your life?

- How does the image of God using brokenness (like kintsugi art) speak to your own life?
- How have you seen God use someone else’s brokenness to help you or others?
- What area of pain or struggle in your life could God use for good right now?
