

Untangling Christmas

Untangling the Noise

Read Luke 2:1-20

In what ways would Bethlehem have been a noisy place?

Beyond the quiet hillsides outside of town, why might God have chosen the shepherds to be the first to hear of the birth of Jesus?

What noises or distractions in this season most prevent me from being still enough to listen for God's voice—and what practical step can I take to create daily moments of silence?

In what ordinary places of my life (work, home, errands, routines) might God already be speaking if I slow down and pay attention like the shepherds did?

When I listen in silence, how have I sensed God calling me to respond—through deeper faith, gratitude, forgiveness, generosity, or sharing His good news with others?

Who in my life needs to hear the message of love, peace, and hope I've received this season—and how can I intentionally share it with them?

3 RELATIONSHIPS CONNECTOR

OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

the rhythm of Obedience

I listen to the Holy Spirit and obey.

Create moments of silence where you can not only listen for God's voice but then respond in obedience.

THE WORLD

the rhythm of Engagement

I look for opportunities to introduce people to Jesus.

The shepherds immediately went out and shared Jesus with others. Look for those who need to experience God's love and grace found in Jesus.
